

The Judge Group becomes an ETC Preferred Provider

The Eastern Technology Council has named The Judge Group its Preferred Provider for IT executive recruiting and staffing.

Headquartered in Conshohocken, Pa., The Judge Group offers staffing, training and business-technology solutions to companies of all sizes, from Fortune 500 organizations to smaller, innovative businesses.

With $150 million in annual revenue and offices nationwide, the company employs over 2,000 contract professionals and has placed thousands of candidates with clients around the world.

"The Judge Group is excited about its new partnership with the Eastern Technology Council. With our 36 years of experience, we look forward to developing further relationships with our fellow ETC members," said CEO Martin E. Judge, Jr.

By collaborating with talented individuals on the forefront of technology and market trends, The Judge Group helps its clients gain competitive advantage in a range of areas, including information technology, engineering, nursing, senior management, logistics/supply chain management and sales/marketing.

For more information about The Judge Group, go to www.judge.com.

In selecting Preferred Providers, the Technology Council considers member companies who offer best-of-breed products and services at an excellent value. The Council also helps members preserve capital by reducing fundamental expenses with Council-negotiated discounts from the following Preferred Providers:

- Telecommunications Solutions
ATX Communications
- Financial / Banking Services
Commerce Bancorp, Inc.

- Real Estate Services
GVA Smith Mack
- Software & Technology
Microsoft
- Healthcare & Medical Benefits
USI Colburn

The Judge Group includes (top row left to right) Gary Morris, Executive Search; Kenneth Krieger, CIO; Marge Muccioli, IT Director; Martin E. Judge, Jr., CEO; William Gladstone, President, Judge Inc.; Amy Feldman, Legal Counsel; Marty Schratz, V.P., Philadelphia Staffing Division; Robert Alessandrini, CFO; and (bottom row left to right) Pete Pedone, President, Berkeley Training; Dennis Judge, Jr., President, Judge Professional Division; Katy Wiercinski, COO; Brian Anderson, V.P., Sales and Marketing; and Lindsay Nolan, Branch Manager, IT Perm Division.